Nōku te Hē - When we get it wrong

We Are:

We are Kaitiaki of mental health and wellbeing. Our role is being the eyes and ears of the people in Aotearoa, amplifying the voices of our communities. We are keeping watch on what is happening in our mental health and addiction systems, speaking up and bringing focus to areas where meaningful, long-term transformation can take place.

We focus on:

- Advancing mental health and wellbeing outcomes for Māori and whānau
- Achieving equity for priority populations
- Advocating for a mental health and addiction system that has people and whānau at the centre
- Addressing the wider determinants of mental health and wellbeing

We will:

- Assess and report publicly on the wellbeing of the people of Aotearoa and the performance of the mental health and wellbeing system
- Make recommendations to improve the system
- Advocate for the collective needs and interests of people with lived experience, whānau and supporters, and communities that are more likely to experience inequity in mental health and wellbeing
- Be a system leader and promote alignment across the system
- Be independent
